Charming house in Sóller with a pool

In the charming town of Sóller, you will find this unique house, divided into two separate apartments.

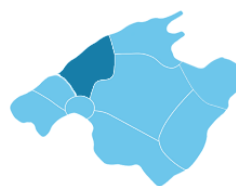

On the ground floor, there is a charming 80 m² apartment that has been sparingly renovated to preserve Mallorcan details such as wooden doors and exposed ceiling beams. It features a bright, fully equipped open-plan kitchen and living area, as well as a bathroom and two bedrooms. The private 14 m² terrace faces south and has direct access to the house's pool, surrounded by orange trees that are shared with only one other property.

On the upper floor, there is a larger and brighter 120 m² apartment with a generous fully equipped kitchen, living room with a fireplace, and dining area. It has three spacious bedrooms. The private 15 m² terrace also faces south and offers fantastic views of the mountains, with a staircase leading directly down to the pool area.

The pool area is shared by a total of three apartments, two of which are these. Both apartments are bright throughout and offer great potential to be converted into a spacious townhouse, but they also work perfectly as separate rental units.

Don't miss the chance to own this charming home in one of Mallorca's most picturesque towns!
