Renovation object in Foners with big potential

In Foners you will find this townhouse with great potential. Here, you live close to everything you could need for a comfortable life in Palma.

The property currently offers 95 m² of living space and features a large private rooftop terrace, a kitchen, living room, three bedrooms, and one bathroom. The house is currently in need of renovation, providing an excellent opportunity to create your dream home in a fantastic location. There is also the possibility of demolishing the existing house and building a larger multi-storey townhouse with space for both a pool and a garage, if desired.

A fantastic opportunity in a prime location in central Palma!
