Spacious townhouse with a lot of potential

This townhouse is located in the quiet area of Son Armadams, right between Santa Catalina and El Terreno. Here you live peacefully and comfortably, just a few steps from international schools, the city pulse, shops, and restaurants.

This house is large and spacious and would be perfect for a larger family. The first floor is entirely occupied by the fully equipped kitchen with dining area and living room, from which you access your garden. The garden, approximately 65 m², offers a small terrace area as well as space for BBQ and lounge furniture.

One floor up you will find 4 bedrooms, all very spacious, and one of the bedrooms has an en-suite bathroom. On the second floor up you will find the master suite, which occupies the entire top floor. Here you will find a sunny terrace as well as a large bathroom with a bathtub en-suite.

The house also has a garage on the basement level with space for two cars. Residents of the community also have access to a large swimming pool.
