Spacious house in Sóller with charm and original details

This large traditional Mallorcan villa is located in Sóller, in a sunny and quiet area just a few minutes' walk from the town square. The property has a built area of approximately 350 m² and is distributed over three floors plus a basement level. The house has preserved many of its original features, such as hydraulic tiled floors and exposed wooden beams, giving it a very authentic and characterful feel. On the ground floor, you are welcomed by a spacious entrance hall, a fully equipped kitchen, a living room with dining area, and an additional smaller room that can be used as an office or library, for example. On the first floor, there are two rooms currently used as offices, with direct access to a large private terrace offering great opportunities for both relaxation and social gatherings. The upper floor consists of two double bedrooms, one single bedroom, and a full bathroom. At the very top of the house, there are also a generous room that can be adapted to suit different needs, such as a lounge, studio, or additional storage space. In the basement, there is another bathroom as well as a large storage room with ample storage possibilities. Outside, the property offers a beautiful garden with its own water well and a barbecue area.
